DEPOSED ZELAYA HITS BACK AGAIN

Flays President Taft and the United States Government in Pamphlet

WARNS THE LATIN-AMERICANS

Declare Its Purpose of Government to Seize Central American Republics—Scorn for Monroe Doctrine—Details.

New Orleans, March 1.—In a 16-page pamphlet bearing the title "Refutation of the Statements of President Taft" received here today from Brussels, Jose Santos Zelaya, exiled former president of Nicaragua, indulges in bitter denunciation of President Taft and this government's policy of aggression in Latin America.

He brands President Taft as a slanderer; accuses the United States government of having "shamelessly aided the rebellion," in Nicaragua, of having "brought consciences" to further its scheme of aggrandizement and warns Latin-Americans that the purpose of the Taft administration is to seize the Central American Republics. The pamphlet has been widely distributed.

Zelaya's attack upon the Taft adminstration was called forth by what he terms "unjust accusations, full of bitterness against me," contained in the President's annual message to Congress in December.

In that message President Taft referred to Zelaya "as the disturber of Central America," said the people of Nicaragua were finally driven into rebellion by his lawless exactions and that Zelaya violated the laws of warfare by the "unwarranted execution of two Americans citizens who had regularly enlisted in the ranks of the revolutionists."

Zelaya discusses our "interference" in Cuba, Santo Domingo, Panama, etc., and declares that the conduct of the United States has given "a solemn denial to this candid allusion"—the Monroe Doctrine. In place of the Monroe Doctrine, he says, the United States government has adopted the policy of "America for the Yankees".

Referring to the recent Nicaragua resolution, which finally brought about the downfall, Zelaya says: "The United States government shamelessly aided the rebellion; it took the part of the rebels against my government; it bought conscience, promising the intriguants to give them the country in return for concessions ruinous to the latter.

"The battle was unequal and my withdrawal from power, of which President Taft gives a false explanation, only took place when I had acquired the conviction that it was impossible to undo the web of treason and small villainies of which the United States government had plotted for misfortune of our unhappy country."

TRIBUTES TO J. S. CARROLL.

Funeral of Former Maryland Governor at Baltimore.

Baltimore, March 1.—In the presence of an assemblage that crowded the edifice, the funeral services of former Governor John Lee Carroll were held at the Cathedral today. A special train brought the body and the relatives and friends of the family from Washington, where the former Governor and great grandson of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, died last Monday. Governor Crothers and his staff, a large delegation from the Sons of the Revolution, of which Governor Carroll had been president-general for 20 years, and a representation from the Society of the Cincinnati was awaiting the cortege in the portico of the cathedral, the governor and his staff and the members of the societies acting as honorary pall bearers.

Mgr. Thomas J. Lee, rector of St. Matthew's Catholic church, Washington, where Governor Carroll had been a communicant, was the celebrant at the requiem mass, at the conclusion of which the body was conveyed to Bonnie Brae Cemetery for buiral. A number of persons came from distant cities to attend the funeral.

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESS.

Fifty Thousand Business Men Informformed by Telephone of Meeting.

Atlanta, Ga., March 1.—Fifty thousand persons, principally the leading business men of Georgia and nearby States, today received a telephone message announcing the meeting of the Southern Commercial Congress in Atlanta March 8th to 10th, according to the estimate of Secretary W. G. Cooper, of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

Several days ago Mr. Cooper made arrangements with J. R. A. Hobson, general commercial superintendent of a telephone company, whereby the managers of more than 300 local exchanges of the concerns were instructed personally to call up the leading business men on their lines and give them a message from the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

SENATOR LORIMER RETAINS HIS SEAT

Illinois Member Charged with Bribery in Election Wins by Close Vote

ENDS BITTER SENATE FIGHT

Resolution Defeated by Vote of 46 to 40—Number of Anti-Lorimer Speeches Prior to Vote—Intense Interest.

Washington, March 1.—William Lorimer retains his seat in the United States Senate. By a vote of 46 to 40 that body today defeated the resolution introduced by Senator Beveridge declaring the junior senator from Illinois had not legally been elected.

The end to the case that for so many months had been before the Senate and which had provoked one of the most bitter fights in that body for years—a fight in which the personal equation served to heighten and intensify the feeling—came shortly after 1:30 o'clock. Promptly at that hour the Vice President brought his gavel down sharply upon his desk and called for a vote on the resolution. The agreement entered into by the members yesterday called for the shutting off of all debate at that hour and the settlement of the issue by a vote.

Senator LaFollette had the floor at the time and the rap of the gavel forced him to an abrupt termination of his anti-Lorimer speech. The ayes and noes were sounded and the crowded floor and galleries followed the roll call with interest most intense.

Upon the conclusion of the roll call and the announcement of the result, applause was heard in the galleries while on the floor Senator Lorimer's friends hastened to tender their congratulations.

The vote—Nays: pro-Lorimer, Republicans: Bradley, Brandegee, Bulkeley, Briggs, Burnham, Burrows, Carter, Clarke, of Wyoming; Crane, Cullom, Curtis, Depew, Dick, Dillingham, Dupont, Flint, Frye, Gallinger, Gamble, Guggenheim, Hale, Heyburn, Kean, McCumber, Nixon, Oliver, Penrose, Perkins, Piles, Richardson, Scott, Smoot, Stevenson, Warren and Wetmore.

Democrats: Bailey, Bankhead, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Paynter, Simmons, Smith, of Maryland; Thornton, Tillman and Watson. Total nays 46.

Ayes (anti-Lorimer), Republicans: Beveridge, Borah, Bourne, Bristow, Brown, Burkett, Burton, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Gronna, Jones, La Follette, Lodge, Nelson, Page, Root, Smith, of Michigan; Sutherland, Warner and Young.

Democrats: Bacon, Chamberlain, Clarke, of Arkansas; Culberson, Davis, Gore, Martin, Money, Newlands, Overman, Owen, Percy, Rayner, Shively, Smith, of South Carolina; Stone, Swanson, and Taylor. Total ayes 40. Absent, Aldrich, Frazier and Terrell.

Senator Lorimer did not vote because of his interest in the case and Senator Taliaferro was in his seat, but did not respond to his name.

The vote of Senator Cullom, Mr. Lorimer's colleague from Illinois, was awaited with great interest. Both sides had claimed him. He voted for Lorimer.

While no pairs were announced, Senator Aldrich was paired on other questions with Senator Terrell, both being absent on account of illness. Senator Taliaferro's silence may signify a pair with Senator Frazier, who was absent n account of the death of his mother. Mr. Taliaferro had been understood to be pro-Lorimer.

The position of Senators Frazier and Terrell, who were absent were announced as both anti-Lorimer.

There is a general understanding that Senator Aldrich would have favored Lorimer. Nothing was stated on the floor regarding his attitude.

The scene when the vote was taken was one of the most intense, but surpressed excitement. Not until Senator Wetmore, next to the last name on the list had voted, was the 46 pro-Lorimer total complete. The result had been expected, but everybody waited breathlessly for the announcement. It was received with applause from the galleries, but as usual this was quickly suppressed by the presiding officer.

"The resolution is lost," announced the Vice President, and instantly the Senate was in an uproar of people leaving the galleries and the floor. It was some minutes before the Senate could resume its proceedings.

Preceding the taking of the vote on the resolution speeches were made by Senators Owen, Smith, of Michigan, and LaFollette all in opposition to Lorimer retaining his seat and by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, in favor of the Illinois Senator. Mr. Lorimer also spoke briefly in answer to a telegram from Governor Deneen, of Illinois, produced in the Senate by Senator Owen denying Senator Lorimer's statements regarding himself. Mr. LaFollette, the last speaker of the day, was proceeding to say that every line of the testimony convicts Mr. Lorimer, not only of obtaining his seat, but of being a participant in that bribery when he turned with trembling voice and gesticulating hands toward the seat of Senator Lorimer on his left. FALLEN BANKER PLEAD GUILTY

Joseph G. Robin Will be Sentenced on March 27th—Seven Indictments Against Him Remain. Unexpected Turn.

New York, March 1.—Joseph G. Robin, the fallen banker, pleaded guilty today to an indictment charging him with larceny of $27,000 from the Washington Savings Bank, of which he was formerly president. Seven indictments against him remain. He was remanded to the Tombs until March 27th, when he will be sentenced.

Within the next few days District Attorney Whitman will question Robin about the share of others, not under indictment, in the collapse of the banks with which Robin was connected. It is understood the prisoner had professed willingness to talk freely and he has already said that persons high in confidence and authority were equally as guilty as he.

There is still pending an indictment charging perjury against Dr. Louise Robinovitch. She and her brother both denied any relationship with an elderly couple named Robinovitch, who swore they were her father and mother. District Attorney Whitman would not commit himself positively about this indictment, but elft the impression that it would not be pressed.

Dr. Robinovitch, it is learned, has informed Mr. Whitman and Justice Seabury that she is now convinced her brother is not insane.

NO APPEAL BY ROADS.

Western Trunk Lines Will Abide by the Rate Decision.

Chicago, March 1.—Thirty-five Western Railroads decided today to make no appeal from the recent decision of the Inter-State Commerce Commission forbidding the roads to increase freight rates. They will accept the decree of the commission as final.

The decision was reached at a meeting today of representatives of the roads at the Western Trunk Line Association headquarters here. The opinion was advanced by many that the roads would be unable to make any stronger showing before the new Commerce Court than they had before the commission, and that once the new court had ruled, its decree would be binding for two years.

It also was argued that if the roads comply with the decree without objection and withdraw the advanced tariffs before March 10, there will be an opportunity at a later date to submit advances on certain rates, some of which may meet with favor.

CRUISERS ON THEIR RETURN.

United States and French Squadrons Leave New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 1.—The United States and French squadrons which came to New Orleans for the Mardi Gras period, departed today. The three French warships, the Gloire, Conde and Admiral Aube sailed for Vera Cruz, Mex. From there Admiral LaJarte and the officers of the three ships will go to Mexico City for a visit of several days.

The United States cruisers Tennessee, Salem and Chester, with Admiral Staunton in command, sailed for New York.

MITCHELL LEAVES FEDERATION

Resigns to Prevent Losing Membership in Mine Workers' Organization—Forced to Choose Between the Two.

New York, March 1.—John Mitchell, former head of the United States Mine Workers of America and lately chairman of the Trade Agreement Department of the National Civic Federation, today made public his resignation of his office and membership in the latter organization. It was also announced that President Seth Low, of the Civic Federation, had accepted the rsignation to take effect at the close of the present month.

Mr. Mitchell's severance of relations with the Civic Federation follows the stand recently taken by the United Mine Workers of America in declaring that any member of their organization accepting a position with the National Civic Federation would thereby forfeit membership in the Union. With this choice placed before Mr. Mitchell, he decided to resign from the Civic Federation.

His letter of resignation, made public today, is dated February 15th and addressed to Mr. Low.

"It is needless to say that I regret the action of the Miners' convention not so much because it requires me to choose between the two organizations as because of the unjust and gratuitous attack upon the National Civic Federation, in addition to many useful public activities, has stood consistently as an advocate of righteous industrial peace," says Mr. Mitchel in his letter of resignation.

In accepting the resignation, Mr. Low pays a tribute to the value of Mr. Mitchell's work for industrial peace.

Sydney, N. S., March 1.—Fire destroyed the inter-Colonial Railway station today. The loss is $200,000.

SENATE IN TANGLE AT NIGHT SESSION

Shifting of Control of Tariff Board Bill by Lodge Created Stir

WAS CLEVER BIT OF HAZING

Motion to Re-Commit the Measure Was Lost—Beveridge Placed in Control Through Conspiracy—Long Session.

Washington, March 1.—When Senator Beveridge moved at tonight's session of the Senate to proceed with consideration of the bill to create a permanent tariff board, thus indicating that control of the measure had passed from Senator Lodge, the member of the Finance Committee, who reported it, to a senator who is not on the committee, there followed as clever a bit of hazing as was ever witnessed in the Senate.

Beginning with some facititous comments by Senator Stone, of Missouri, the situation became serious when Senator Money, of Mississippi, demanded an explanation. Finally he moved to re-commit the bill to the Committee on Finance in the hope, as he said, of clarifying the situation. This motion failed by a vote of 22 to 51.

Senator Lodge, with some show of reluctance, finally confessed that the surrendering of the conduct of the bill to Senator Beveridge had been a part of the agreement yesterday by which the Senate fixed a time to vote on the Lorimer case and made the tariff board bill the unfinished business.

According to Mr. Stone it has been uniform and unbroken practice of the Senate that when a bill is reported from a committee some member of that committee shall take charge of it.

He called attention to the fact that the matter had been reported by Senator Lodge, who had suddenly disappeared willingly or unwillingly. He declared that when the bill was given to him to report it was his right and duty to maintain charge of it. Finally, Mr. Stone addressed Mr. Hale, of Maine, and asked him if he could solve the riddle.

"I am in a condition of surprise," said Mr. Hale. "I supposed that the senator from Massachusetts was in charge of the bill and I should like to know by what process of leger de main he was ousted from the control and management of it."

Continuing, Mr. Hale said that he didn't think even his "modest friend from Indiana would assume to take the leadership."

Predicting in this vein, Mr. Hale kept the Senate convulsed with laughter while Senators Beveridge and Lodge remained in their seats evidently much embarrassed.

"I would like to know," asked Mr. Owen, "whether this interesting colloquy is a conspiracy?"

"It is a conspiracy that results from two serious and honest minds running in the same direction," responded Mr. Hale.

"Isn't it an attempt to uncover a conspiracy?" asked Mr. Money.

Mr. Hale again asked by what transformation Senator Lodge had been ousted.

He wanted to know if the senator from Massachusetts had been left dangling in the air. If he has, the senator said, then the senator from Indiana is the proper man perhaps, to take charge of this measure.

"Is this bill a founding, which had no one to care for it, and was it at last laid at the door steps of the senator from Indiana?" asked Mr. Hale.

"This bill came from the House. Its paternity is of unquestioned respectability,'" declared Senator Owen.

Senator Money declared the proceeding was most disorderly and that there had been some irregularity, which he could not understand, by which the bill had passed from the control of a member of the Committee on Finance to the possession of the chairman of the Committee on Territories. He demanded to know whether the transfer was by agreement.

"It is not a laughing matter," said Senator Money. "Facetiousness is one of the vices of this age. Some people can't talk upon a question without trying to be funny."

Up to this time continuous laughter had greeted the different speakers, but at the admonition of Mr. Money the risibilities of senators were curbed. He expressed the opinion that the transfer of the management of the tariff board bill could not be explained. He called upon Senator Beveridge.

"For four years I have been trying to secure the enactment of a measure such as this," explained Senator Beveridge. He spoke with considerable emotion, saying that he had taken charge of the measure only after Senator Lodge had agreed to that course.

"No authority exists on that side of the House for the transfer of the conduct of this bill to a senator not a member of the committee which gave

HEYBURN PLANNED A RADICAL MOVE

Amendment to Cut Forestry Appropriation from Five to One Million

SENATE VOTES AGAINST IT

Friends of the Forest Service Stirred. Tried to Kill Settled Policy of Government Charges. Features.

Washington, March 1.—Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, tonight made a futile attempt to reduce the annual expenditures for the maintenance of National Forest reserves from more than $5,000,000 to $1,000,000 by the introduction of an amendment to the Agricultural bill and brought down upon his head the wrath of friends of the forest service, who declared he was trying to kill a settled policy of the government.

The question arose in connection with the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill. The amendment was defeated 19 to 50.

Several senators said that they thought the forest service was too costly and that the appropriations ought to be reduced, but that the amendment offered by Mr. Heyburn went too far.

During his general criticism of the forest service, Mr. Heyburn said in one way and another Congress is appropriating almost $8,000,000 annually for the protection of the forests. He charged the foresters with using the reserves for their own benefit. He alleged that they profit by collecting bounties for killing wild animals. "They create the reserves, prevent others from hunting, kill the game themselves and then collect from the State. They have a private snap," he said.

Senator Clark, of Wyoming, denounced the forestry system in warm terms, and in doing so warned the Eastern senators that the time would come when they would rue the day that they had procured the establishment of reserves in the White Mountains and the Southern Appalachians.

Mr. Overman, of North Carolina, made some inquiries concerning the National nurseries. Replying, Senator Nelson undertook to tell about the forestry nurseries in Alaska and elicited a loud burst of laughter by relating that when he was a boy he had worked in a nursery, "where," he said "we did a little grafting."

In the same connection, Mr. Heyburn said that the tree seeds used in the nurseries were obtained largely through robbing the nests of squirrels. He said that he knew of 45 bushels gathered from that source.

Speaking of the foresters, Mr. Heyburn declared that they were recruited from the Eastern States.

"They are suckers, grafters," he said, and defining the grafters added: "The grafter is not the man who pokes his hand into a till and takes out what he gets hold of; he is the man who attaches himself to some other man's property, and draws it away from him."

After the defeat of the amendment proposing to decrease the appropriation for forest preservation, Mr. Heyburn offered another proposition to prohibit the expenditure of any part of the Forest Service appropriation upon forests growing less than 4,000 feet, board measure, of merchantable lumber per acre in contiguous areas of 160 acres. He said that the effect of the amendment would be to eliminate more than one-third of the forest reserves. The committee of the whole finally accepted the amendment.

The agricultural appropriation bill passed without a roll call.

MILEAGE BOOK BILL PASSED IN SENATE

Simply Requires Two Windows in Ticket Offices of Larger Towns

THE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY

Farm Life Schools Get Through the House—Reduce Number of Oil Inspectors—Protection of Forests from Fire.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 1.—The Senate discussed at great length today the Baggett bill for pulling mileage on trains as amended by the committee to simply require railroads to maintain two windows at all stations of 2,000 and more inhabitants so mileage tickets will be the more readily procured before boarding trains.

Senator Baggett got in a substitute to substitute requiring pulling mileage on trains. A number of other substitutes were offered but all were voted down and the committee substitute for two windows in towns of 2,000 inhabitants was passed by a vote of 40 to 3. This was ordered engrossed and sent to the House.

The Senate at the urgent request of Senator Baggett took his anti-trust bill from the "unfavorable" calendar but declined to allow it a special order appointment.

The House tabled the bill for the protection of forests from fire on motion of Representotive Buck. This was the bill that the Senate passed and then recalled on the claim by Senators who voted for it that objectionable features were found in it. It proposed a tax of one-half cent per acre on forests.

The House adopted a resolution of esteem for J. M. Poole, a veteran at the Solders' Home, who celebrated his one hundredth birthday today, adjournment tonight being in his honor.

Bills passed to reduce the number of oil inspectors from ten to five; change the designation from law clerk to assistant attorney general and increase that official's pay.

The House passed 95 to 15 the Senate bill for farm life schools after a spirited debate in which Ray, of Macon; Gay, of Northampton, and others opposed on the ground that this was an utopian dream that could not work out in practice and the State is not financially able to undertake it.

State Primary Bill.

By a vote of 24 to 17 the Senate at 7:30 tonight passed on second reading the Hobgood bill providing a primary election for all parties throughout the State. On objection it went over for third reading until Thursday, being set as a special order at 10 o'clock. The bill was considerably modified by amendment striking out Section 17 relating to misdemeanor charge against a voter participating in the primary and then failing to supportt the ticket of any political party with which he claimed to be affiliated. The amended bill changes the date of the primary from the first Tuesday in September to the first Tuesday in August. Senators Hobgood and Gardner led the fight ofr the bill and Senators Bassett and Pharr in opposition, and all seven Republicans. Three Republican members, Starbuck, Haymore and Anderson, argued in opposition and all seven Republican members voted against it.

Senators Bassett and other Democrats insisted that if General Assembly enacts this law the party will have to do penance for it and that it should not pass until it gets the endorsement of a Democratic convention.

A long discussion of the Dowd bill for uniting the A. & M. College and the State Departments of the plea of economy of administration and to avoid duplicating work developed an indication that the result will be legislative appointment of a commission to investigate the possibilitiees and report of the next session. Representatives of the college and department joined in opposition before the joint argument before tthe usual commttee.

Club Locker Bill.

The House spent from 8 to nearly 11 o'clock tonight thrashing out and amending and finally passing on all readings of the bill by Latham to prohibit the sale or handling of intoxicating liquors by any club or association, an amendment being adopted that eliminates the clause that would prohibit members of clubs having liquor in their personal lockers, and specifying that this act shall not interfere with local law regulating the control of the keeping of liquors. The greatest opposition was to the feature that interfered with with lockers in clubs and Devin, of Granville, offered an amendment striking out the words "or where members allowed to keep intoxicating liquors in lockers or in storage devices of any kind," shall be guilty of a misdemanor. This was adopted 65 to 32 and on the final vote. For the passage of the bill the vote was 83 to 16.

The bill as it passed follows:

"Section 1. That any corporation, club, association or person who shall directly or indirectly keep or maig-tain by itself or himself or by association with others or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet in keeping or maintaining a club room or place where intoxicating liquors are received or kept to be drunk or for barter or sale or distribution or for division or use among the members of any club or association by any means whatever shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit hospitals, drug stores and dispensaries and asylums for keeping intoxicating liquors for medical purposes, and provided further, that nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing or modifying and local laws regulating these matters.

"Section 2. This act shall be in from and after July 1, 1911."

"The discussion of the bill was spirited and characterized by cross firing until the Devin amendment was proposed and passed and then the support of the bill was very general. Representative Battle, of Wake, oldest member of the House, voiced the opposition when he declared that to invade the right of a club member to have liquors in his personal locker would be too great an invasion of personal liberty and endanger the general cause of prohibition, however, personally he was opposed to the use of liquors even for medical purposes, believing that it had no place in the human system. However, some men live at their clubs and if they want to keep personal supplies their right to do so should not be questioned.

Representative Kellum, of New Hanover, registered his unqualified protest against every phase of the pending legislation as unDemocratic and overstepping the intentions of the people when they voted prohibition which his people didn't want and believed to be demoralizing far beyond any harm that could come from a regulated handling of liquors.

Revenue Bill in Senate.

Tonight the Senate considered the Revenue bill. The school tax was raised to 20 cents.

Section 23, relating to income, was amended so as to prohibit publishing incomes, a fine of $50 for violation.

Section 27, relating to theatres, was adopted and the House amendment cutting the taxes in half was rejected.

Section 31, relating to tax on professional men, was amended to add expert accountants, optometrists, veterinary surgeons, insurance adjusters and architects. The bill passed second reading and took its place on the calendar for further amendment.

On motion of Senator Boyden the Senate concurred in the House amendment reducing the bond issue to $250,000 for a State adminstration building. The bill was ordered enrolled.

Senate—57th Day.

The Senate was convened by President Pro Tem. Pharr at 10:30 and Rev. Mr. Eubanks offered prayer.

Baggett Anti-Trust Bill.

Senator Baggett asked that his anti-trust bill, which was reported unfavorably by the committee on judiciary, be taken from the table and placed on the calendar. His request was granted.

He then moved and insisted that the bill be made special order for Friday at 10 o'clock.

Senator Bassett registered his strenuous objection. A lively discussion followed and Senator Barnes jocularly inquired of Senator Baggett if his bill had teeth or tusks, and he replied that it had both.

Senator Boyden was dead opposed to any more special orders.

Senator Martin, and Senator Brower were of the same opinion. Senator Thorne felt that some sort of anti-trust legislation ought to be enacted. Senator Barnes hoped the motion to set the bill for special order would not prevail.

On an aye and no vote the motion was lost by a vote of 28 to 13.

To Facilitate Business.

Senator Brown moved to instruct the committee on rules to name a calendar committee to arrange the calendar and thus facilitate business. The motion prevailed.

Petitions Presented.

Petitions were presented by Senator Hobgood for a colored reform school and by Senator Armstrong asking that the Bible be taught in the public schools.

House—Fifty-Seventh Day.

The House was convened by Speaked Dowd, prayer being offered by Rev. J. B. Newton, of Salemburg.

Wake County Again.

Mr. Kellum, of New Hanover, arose to a question of personal privilege. He read a notice in the News and Observer offering a reward of $100 for discovery of a bill, known as the Wake county salary bill, that was charged to have been stolen from the files. He said this was a reflection on the clerks and the members of the House and the editor had been deceived by some one, for at no time had the bill been lost, but was in the files all the time.

Mr. Batte, of Wake, said the facts were that he had made every effort to find the bill; that the House journal showed that by numbers every bill had been properly passed except this one. He waited and waited to hear it called, and the fact that it was not called caused him to look for it. He never could find it. On account of its having been absolutely lost, and from the fortunate fact that a similar bill had passed the Senate, he yesterday, had to have this House salary bill tabled by number, and the unfortunate fact about the whole matter was, this bill could not be found until after it had been tabled. He had no idea the clerk of the House, or any of his assistants were guilty of even negligence in the matter, but he thought the office should be protected from any and everybody being allowed access to the bills there.

Mr. Pace, of Wake, said all he knew about the bill was, that as a representative of Wake, he had looked for it, in vain, and never could find it until after it had been tabled.

Speaker Dowd explained that it was very probable that out of so many bills, that this Wake bill had been misplaced on one or more of the several calendars. It was remarkable how few mistakes were made by the clerks of the House, and he was sure the whole trouble arose from the inadvertant misplacing of a bill on the wrong calendar.

Mr. Taylor, of Brunswick, and Mr. Spainhour, of Burke, said that they were sure the clerks, who were remarkably careful and accurate, were not to blame, but that there should be a more strict protection of all bills from the inspection or possession of parties not members of the committees to which they belonged or the author of the bill.

Introduction of Bills.

McPhaul: To repeal the law relating to changing boundary line of Sterling township.

McPhaul: To prohibit setting fish traps in the waters of Robeson county.

Mease: To amend the road law of Waynesville township.

Mease: For relief of tax colector of Waynesville.

Carr, of Durham (by request): To amend the law of 1905.

Battle: For relief of E. W. Hightower and others.

Judd: For relief of Nelson Arnold.

WALLING TAKES THE STAND.

Testifies in Breach of Promise Suit in New York.

New York, March 1.—William English Walling, the wealthy socialist and writer, testified in his own defense at a night continuance of today's session of the hearing of the $100,000 breach of promise suit brought against him by Anna Berthe Grunspan. He testified that he first met the plaintiff on the Champs Elysses in Paris in June, 1905.

"I was walking with a friend," Walling said, "and we saw two young women walking along. I said to one, 'My friend thinks he knows you.' We talked about the way Parisian men met and talked with women on the streets at night. Finally we took a cab to an amusement place—a cheap sort of Coney Island."

"What took place in the cab?" he was asked.

"The same sort of talk about the streets of Paris. She put her head on my shoulder on the way home."

Walling said that he met Miss Grunspan again in a few days, and that they became quite friendly on the third meeting. They were together frequently after that. He denied giving her a ring or any token of engagement.

Three foreign attorneys were brought into the case today to explain European ideas upon breach of promise suits. They declared that courts in their countries looked with disfavor on such suits. Counsel for the defense contend that if Miss Grunspan's action would not be maintained in French, German and Russian courts, her suit should not be entertained here.

NEW CABINET IN FRANCE.

Premier Monis Selected the New Ministers Yesterday.

Paris, March 1.—The new French cabinet so far as it is at present constituted, is made up as follows:

Premier and Minister of Interior—Antoine Ernest Monis.

Minister of Foreign Affairs—M. Cruppi.

Minister of War—Henry Maurice Berteaux.

Minister of Marine—Theophile DelCasse.

Minister of Finance—M. Callaux.

Minister of Public Instruction—M. Steeg.

Minister of Public Works—Charles Dumont.

Minister of Agriculture—M. Masse.

Minister of Colonies—M. Messimy.

Minister of Labor—Paul Boncout.

Under Secretaries: Interior—Emile Constan. Justice and Worship—Louis Malvy. Posts and Telegraphs—Charles Chaumet. Beaux Arts—Henry Dujard in-Beaumetz. Premier Monis spent the day in strenuous efforts to get his ministers together. His labors appeared to be crowned with complete success and the list of ministers was sent to the Journal Officiel.

At the last moment, however, came the unexpected refusal of Jules Jeanneney and Francois Porrier to accept respectively the portfolios of Justice and Commerce. This necessitated a hurried recall of the list.

The premier then proferred the portfolios to Senators Louis Develle and Jules Pams. Their answer will not be made known until tomorrow.

The new ministers met at the residence of Premier Monis and outlined the principal features of the programme, which the government will submit to the Chamber of Deputies.

At the end of the conference M. Monis said that the ministry could be considered as definitely constituted and that there was no probability that the list as it is now made up would be modified.

The chief difficulty encountered by the premier was in finding a suitable head for the foreign office.

The appearance of DelCasse in the cabinet has caused alarm in some sections. Some of the newspapers declare that it would be better if he should remain in oblivion, charging that he menaced the peace of France and the peace of the world by attempting the isolation of Germany in connection with the Moroccan question in 1905.

An officer of the institution declined to confirm or deny the report, saying he preferred to have any statement to be made come from Mr. Norton at Washington.

The First National Bank has a capital and surplus of more than $30,000,000. It is reported that Mr. Norton will take up his work here at an early date.

Washington, March 1.—While no official confirmation could be obtained from Charles D. Norton, of the fact that he is to become vice president of the First National Bank of New York, it is understood that is the position he is to fill after leaving the White House.

MERE SAVINGS IS NOT SUFFICIENT.

The saver takes from himself, if he does not put his earnings where they belong—in Bank—and let them contribute still more to his well being. Everybody wants national prosperity, and lots of it, and it is self-evident that every one should contribute to the general wealth according to his abilities. The man who saves and then withholds his savings from circulation, refuses to make his contribution to the public good.

CHICAGO STRIKE UNWISE.

Says President of International Union—Printers Back to Work.

Washington, March 1.—President James M. Lynch, of the International Typographical Union, who is in Washington, gave out a statement tonight in which he said that the strike of the printers against the Hearst newspapers in Chicago was unwise, illegal and, respective to the outcome, could not be otnerwise than disastrous to the cause of union labor. He added that when the members of the International Typographical Union understood the facts they would be unanimous in condemnation of the Chicago demonstration against a publisher of eight union newspapers. The International Typographical Union, he said, would stand for the protection and fulfillment of its contracts, and that the members of the Chicago Typographical Union would be the first to take this stand when the real conditions were understood by them.

Chicago, March 1.—Members of the Chicago Typographical Union No. 16, who went on strike yesterday in the plants of two Chicago newspapers, were ordered tonight to return to work and obeyed that order.

But there was no mercy because the testimony showed that Frank McCauley struck his wife seven or eight times, choked her and then took from her more than $20.

It was the second sentence of a wife-beater to the post by Judge Duffy within a month.

CONSERVATIVE PROGRESS

JUDGE DISMISSES THE JURY

Mild Sensation in Columbus Court—Hayes Case Not Yet Ready for Trial—Conner Convicted of Bigamy—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., March 1.—Judge Cook today created consternation in the court room when he ordered a jury dismissed to serve no more during this term of court and instructed the sheriff to empanel a new jury. The judge's ire was raised on account of a verdict of an acquittal which the jury rendered.

The case had been brought against Cruch and Malpass, who operated a near-beer saloon at Bolton in this county. Two witnesses testified that the stuff they sold would make drunk come, while other equally reliable men swore that the beer they sold was not intoxicating, that they had drank it and it was not a stimulant. After speeches by counsel for the State and defense the jury retired and brought in a verdict of not guilty. It seemed that Judge Cook did not agree with this verdict and the dismissal of the jury followed.

Connor, the young white man with a wife and two children living at Abbottsburg, and who made a bigamous marriage with Miss Emma Ward, near Old Dock, in this county, was today tried and convicted. Judge Cook imposed sentence ow two years on the chaingang, which is looked upon as a very light penalty for so heinous an offense. The general opinion is that he should have been sent to the penitentiary for at least ten years. It will be remembered that Connor was arrested at Delgado Mills, where he was at work and to which place he had carried Miss Ward. Miss Emma Ward comes from a good country family and her friends and relatives are very much incensed against Connor. It is reported that Connor's real wife and children are in very destitute circumstances.

Up to last night when court adjourned the grand jury had not returned a true bill against the Hayes people now confined in jail here charged with the murder of Robert Floyd. The State's witnesses in this case have appeared before the grand jury and the lawyers are mystified at the delay in returning a true bill. It is presumed that action will be taken today, when the attorneys for the State and defense will confer and set a time for trial. It is not thought that the case will commence before Friday. Some think the jury has doubts about the evidence against Neil and Loyd Hayes being sufficiently strong to warrant a true bill being returned, but this is mere surmise, as the transactions of the grand jury are known only to members of that body.

Yesterday a queerly mated couple spent the day in Vineland. They came from near Chadbourn. An old man named Anderson, 75 years of age, had married a mere child, 13 years of age, named Norris. The illmated couple had gone over to South Carolina on the early train, where the ceremony was performed. The aged groom was feasting the bride all day on crackers, which she apparently enjoyed very much. Their appearance created much merriment in Vineland.

A weird story reaches us from Makatoka, a lumber camp town in the Green Swamp. The other day an old man aged 82 years had apparently died, and friends were preparing the supposed corpse for burial when the twitching of an eyelid was noticed. The old man rose up and walked out in the yard, but soon returned and began a long prayer. At the conclusion he stated that he would soon die and was ready to go. The next morning at sunrise, while sitting in his chair, he fell over dead and has since been buried.

Hon. J. G. Butler, of Pireway in this county, is arranging to build a large store house at Loris, S. C., in which he will open a stock of goods. It is also stated that he will soon build a store at Pireway. Mr. Butler is one of our best and most enterprising citizens.

C., March 1.—The Board of Aldermen in special session today at noon awarded the streeet paving work to the Georgia Engineering Company, of Augusta, at $1.48 for Augusta block and cement filler. East Frant street and Pollock may be paved with tarvia macadam after the work is investigated in other cities.

There is $50,000 for the work and the main streets which will be paved are Pollock, East Front and Craven. The bonds were sold some time ago and the work will most likely begin within 20 days. There were ten bidders for the work and representatives from different concerns have been in the city for some days.

Newbern has already over 35 miles of payed sidewalks and over two miles of paved streets, and when this work is completed more than a mile of paved streets will be added.

NEW HANOVER-PENDER BRIDGE.

Measurements Made to Determine Best Side for Steel Structure.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., March 1.—The following advance information concerning the investigation as to the site for the proposed bridge between New Hanover and Pender counties has been received from Mr. C. J. Miller, who with Mr. R. W. Hicks, Jr., of the engineer force, took measurements last week:

The total width of the river at Hungry Neck Landing at high tide, is 560 feet; depth 17 1-2 feet. The same width and depth were taken forty years ago, and at intervals ever since. Two hundred yards above Hungry Neck at an outcrop of phosphate rock on the river bank and down into the river, the width is 480 feet, and the depth 25 1-2 feet at high tide, with a bluff on New Hanover side and 280 feet of swamp on the Pender side. At this point on the New Hanover side during the first discovery of North Carolina phosphate deposits, prospectors visited this spot and found rock which was an evidence that the place was once subject to a geological upheaval of a considerable strata of rock which is supposed to be desirable to build a foundation on. No test has yet been made to find how deep the rock is. Either one of these points would be nearly on a direct line from Prince George Creek to Marlboro, making a road estimated to be 1 1-2 miles nearer than the present route. There may be other and better sites for the location of this most important link to connect the two counties or rather to connect Sampson, Duplin, Onslow and Wayne counties with Wilmington. The location of this bridge means much to Pender and New Hanover counties and the early completion will in all probability be followed by a system of good roads through all of the above mentioned counties, in which large bodies of land now held will be sub-divided into small farms, drainage districts formed, the savannahs now growing trumpet plants and mosquito and malaria breeding places, will be made sweet, healthy and productive. The sand will be made to produce peaches, plums, pears and grapes to make wine of, which drank in season will do more to kill out the poisonous whiskey, and thereby aid prohibition.

EASILY DECIDED

This Question Should be Answered Easily by Wilmington People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. Some time ago when I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's Drug Store and in a few days after I began their use, my pains and aches disappeared. I have felt so much better in every way since using Doan's Kidney Pills that I have no hesitation in recommending them." (Statement given February 25, 1908.)

No Trouble Since.

On December 27, 1910, Mr. Hansley said: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since I took Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and I am glad to say that they brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former statement."

RIVERS AND HARBORS BILL

Representative Ransdell Speaks Interestingly of the Measure as Now in Hands of President Taft for Signature.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—Representative Joseph E. Ransdell, of Louisiana, a member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House and president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, is enthusiastic over the passage of the river and harbor appropriation bill, which it is believed will be speedily signed by the President.

In speaking of the merits of the bill, and the careful, painstaking preparation given to the measure by both the House and Senate Committee dealing with waterways, Mr. Ransdell said: "The passage of the bill now in the hands of the President makes three bills in three successive years. The emergency bill, as it was called, of 1909, carried about ten million dollars. The bill of 1910, carried some fifty-three million dollars, while the present bill provides for something over thirty-six millions, so that there has been legislation affecting our great highways and our harbors for three consecutive years. This certainly establishes the precedent for an annual bill hereafter. This feature of the bill is most generally praised and I have no doubt it will be followed by successive Congresses as a well-settled policy.

"Another feature, which is gratifying to the friends of a liberal waterway policy, is that the present bill, together with that of 1910, which, carrying approximately ninety millions, if expended promptly, would give an average of forty-five millions a year—a close approach to the fifty millions per annum which was adopted as the slogan of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress several years ago.

"The annual feature and the increased amount have been urged with great persistency and the accomplishment of one and the near approach to the other are deeply gratifying to all friends of improved waterways.

"If I were asked to name the distinguishing characteristics of the two bills passed by the 61st Congress, I should say that they are esentially river bills, as contra-distinguished from the harbor bills which have been enacted into law so frequently in the past. Indeed, such liberal provision was made for most of the harbors on the Great Lakes, the Pacific, the Gulf and the Atlantic, by former Congresses, that their demands were small and the present Congress could well afford to be liberal in its treatment of rivers.

"I wish it clearly understood that there is not the slightest antagonism to harbor improvement, for every harbor is a railroad terminal. The greater the facilities thereat for handling freight in large vessels, the cheaper the rates thereon, a subject in which all freight movers are intensely interested. But while we have cheapened freights by deepening harbors, we have done practically nothing to establish forceful competition on rivers and everyone concedes that a great East and West water course, such for example as the combined Ohio and Missouri rivers, and a North and South route, as the Mississippi from St. Paul to the Gulf, would, if properly improved and utilized, be wonderfully beneficial in solving the problem of freight charges. I use these streams as an illustration merely and there are many others in practically every part of the Union which would, in proportion to costs of improvement, be equally helpful.

"Another and most important idea, consistently followed by this Congress, in its river legislation, is the adoption of a definite plan on great projects and fixing a specific period in which to complete them. To illustrate: The river and harbor act of 1907, adopted a plan to improve the Mississippi from St. Paul to the mouth of the Missouri, at a cost of twenty millions; it provided five hundred thousand in cash and authorized contracts for a million and a half additional with the proviso that not exceeding a half million dollars should be spent in any one year. This would mean forty years in which to complete the project.

"The act of 1910 made suitable provision for prosecuting the project above spoken of, and specifically stated that it was with a view of completing said improvement within a period of 12 years, thereby fixing a definite, reasonable time for completion. Similar periods were also fixed for several other great projects that have been under way for, lo, these many years, without any prospect of completion within the lifetime of any member of the present Congress.

"In view of the increased appropriation, and in order to expedite future works, the bill gives an increase of 60 members to the engineer corps of the army and provides for the admission of a certain number of civilians for duty on river and harbor improvements. This is a very decided advance and very beneficial results are expected from it.

"The bill as a whole is clean-cut and as free from objection as any of the great appropriation bills I have ever known in my 12 years of Congressional life."

What's the matter with the shad-frogs? They seem to have retired with the ground hog.

The "Reflections of a Married Man" would be a sad reflection on the "Reflections of a Bachelor."

The more mollycoddly men become the stronger will be the suffragettical tendencies in this country.

Well, we should say that a man who lacks principle is not expected to have any great interest at stake.

Many people count on good luck for success, but others are lucky enough to have the ability to achieve success.

The trouble with some towns is that they have too many men who can but won't and others who would but can't.

Those good for nothing old repudiated bonds keep on coming back like bad money. They bob up as often as Banquo's ghost.

Texas Democrats seem to favor Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for President. Texas is noted for its red-headed widows and horse sense.

Plenty of revenue could be raised in North Carolina if property owners would give their conscience a chance when they go to list their belongings for taxation.

Dr. Cook objects to being called a prevaricator and demands an apology on that account. Of course, any man is entitled to an apology if he shows any sign of repentance.

It is announced that the citizens of Crooksville, O., have refused $20,000 of Mr. Carnegie's money because it is "tainted." The Crooksvilains is the way Mr. Carnegie can refer to them.

A great deal of mention is now being made of the new uses of radium. Somebody must have a lot of radium to unload on those of us who are able to pay a few millions of dollars for a tiny bit of the stuff.

Says the Chicago News: "You can't always tell what a woman's hat costs by what she says the price was." Nevertheless, a woman thinks she has a perfect right to put her own price on her hat after she pays for it.

The cause of woman suffrage hasn't suffered a bit by the election of Gov. Cole L. Blease, of South Carolina. When men make such grievous mistakes in voting they minimize objections to putting the ballot in the hands of women.

Some of the larger cities are governed by what they call "Common Councils." Most of them are so common the people want to try the commission form of government. The commission plan is a protest against municipal politicians.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Raleigh News and Observer, speaks of "divisions" over the problems of city government. Nine times out of ten the divisions are over selfish interests and not concerning the public welfare. There is very little room for differences where only the public good is sought.

The mere fact that Baltimore wants the National Democratic Convention next year and is willing to raise the necessary funds to prepare for that eventful occasion, is giving quite a lot of publicity to Baltimore. It shows that Baltimore is alive and it also shows that unless a city does something it need not expect to figure in the limelight.

NO KILN DRIED CORN SOUTH.

There is an immense lack of knowledge among Northern and Western farmers about agricultural conditions in the South. They are frequently misjudged by conditions prevalent in Western and Northern agricultural regions, although there is a vast difference. The Westerners have heard about those big corn yields of 226 2-3 to 228 3-4 bushels per acre in the Carolinas, though some of them are not only skeptical but totally misunderstand the ideal adaptibility of the South for corn production. For instance, Mr. W. D. Tittsworth, of Avoca, Iowa, in acknowledging receipt of the Atlantic Coast Line's Bulletin No. 6, "The Nation's Garden Spot," writes Captain Clark, the Atlantic Coast Line's live Agricultural and Immigration Agent:

"The record of 228 3-4 bushels of corn grown on one acre of land is misleading, as no account of moisture contained in the corn is made, which I know can be as much as 50 to 60 per cent. If this corn had been placed in a dryer or the moisture contents ascertained and reduced to 12 per cent., and the yield figured from that basis, then one could draw comparison. The fact that one produces from 100 to 200 bushels of corn per acre means nothing without knowing the moisture content and the time of harvest. We have in Iowa produced 11,500 pounds of corn upon one acre of ground. Eighty ears or one bushel was placed in a dryer for 30 days and the shrinkage was nearly seven pounds per bushel and the yield figured from this basis was 153 bushels, 45 pounds, with no commercial fertilizer and no extra expense. One dolar seems to be pretty high, especially this year with corn 33 per cent. lower than last year and your corn generally selling for 75 cents per bushel. Also the value this boy (Jerry Moore) places upon his fodder, 5,000 pounds at $30, or, in other words, $20 per ton or more than No. 1 green alfalfa is worth. Any one with common sense knows that fodder is not worth any such price.

"What can this land which grew this corn be bought for? It was my intention to criticise this record as to facts, but the more I study the matter, I become more firmly convinced that there is a lot of hot air mixed up with it. If you want to advertise your country (which I believe O. K., at the price), bear in mind that the farmers whom you will get by overdrawn statements as to facts and figures from outside your location, will be no better than the majority of farmers you have. I am a farmer and have studied the business some and can prove any statement I have made more easily than some who have made theirs in your pamphlet."

Quite naturally such corn yields as 228 3-4 bushels produced by Jerry Moore and 226 2-3 bushels by J. F. Batts seem incredible and it staggers Mr. Tittsworth. However, as to proof, the facts cannot be more strongly authenticated than that the records are certified by Dr. S. A. Knapp, of the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, who is both an expert and a man of the highest integrity.

Nevertheless, the intelligent Iowa farmer who writes, as well as all others, should not overlook the fact that these enormous yields were the result of farm demonstration work and came from intensively farmed acres cultivated in contesting for prizes. Therefore, it need not be stated that those yields are not common, every season results of corn growing in this country, any more than the Iowa record of 153 bushels per acre is common to that fine corn growing country. The chief value of the Moore and Batts records, however, lies in actually demonstrating the great possibility of Carolina lands—not that they will yield, as a general thing, 150 to 200 bushels of corn per acre, but that the right kind of farming will make this part of the South the greatest corn growing region in America.

Our Western friend also should bear in mind that the South is peculiarly adapted to corn production, and as high authority for that we quote what Dr. Knapp says concerning last season's boys' corn growing contests under his superivision. Says he "There is no doubt that the work of the boys will greatly stimulate the production of corn and will interest many men who would not otherwise give attention to scientific methods in the production of the cereal. The work further shows that the true corn country is the South, because corn is a tropical plant, about four-fifths of the plant being of atmospheric origin."

Mr. Tittsworth also is mistaken about the necessity for kill drying corn in the South. We do not think it would, by any means, be hurt to dry it, but in the South the expense of that process is not necessary like it is in the West. That is owing altogether to the difference in the climatic and seasonable conditions in the West and the South. In the South we have long seasons for corn to mature and it naturally dries out before it is harvested, while in the West the seasons practically are short, the harvest follows quickly upon maturity and necessarily the dry kiln process has to be restored to in order to prevent the corn from mildewing or molding. In this region corn matures in July and can be allowed to remain in the field as long as desired for drying, and in all probability when it is finally housed it is even dryer than artificially dried corn in Iowa.

The difference in yields in Iowa and here are explained by the fact that Iowa prices are those of the producer while ours are those to the consumer. It is those specific conditions that we are endeavoring to reverse, as the South should be a great corn producer.

LEGISLATIVE JOKERSMITHS.

According to the Raleigh Evening Times it seems some members of the General Assembly have had the effrontery to slip "jokers" in some of the bills before that body. The man who has so little conception of his duty to the public as to load any bill with subterfuges and deceptive clauses or words, is the man to let stay at home next time a legislator is wanted. The man who tries the "joker" in legislation at this day hasn't been keeping up with the times. He doesn't seem to recognize the fact that the public looks on the joker as "the limit." When public sentiment is so conspicuously strong for civic and public virtue, the crook is taking big chances with his political fortunes when he either "double deals" or sneaks something into a bill or some deal or other.

No man should introduce in the General Assembly a bill, or offer an amendment to any bill, that he cannot stand up and conscientiously advocate before the Legislature and all the State. The demagogue, the sneak politician and the trickster are the limit.

The "idle rich" are laughed at, but they can afford to have the laugh on them.

CURRENT COMMENT.

At this writing is seems that the near-beer saloons will have only to turn their joints into clubs with locker privileges.—Greensboro Telegram.

Representatives E. Y. Webb is due much appreciation for the able and successful fight he has waged for the preservation of the mint in this city. In raising a fund for the benefit of the widow of the fireman recently killed in Winston, the citizens of that place are coming up to their opportunities in a most gratifying way. The money will not only alleviate want, but will cause the rest of the fire fighters to feel that their loved ones will be looked after should they fall in the discharge of their duty.—Charlotte Observer.

The Pope has decreed that women wearing the harem outfit will be barred from the rites of the Catholic church; even in Paris, a woman who appeared in public wearing the pantaloon-skirt was pelted with rotten eggs; and on the Brooklyn bridge traffic was blocked by the crowds flocking to view the first appearance of this bifurcated garb in the Metropolis. But in spite of mere man and his fun-making proclivities, as well as the criticisms of the more serious ones in authority, if Paris and the women stand pat the world will have to endure. When woman onces makes up her mind, why, even fagots and the rack have less terrors for her than the consciousness of a shackled will.—Greensboro Telegram.

There is good reason for the suggestion that divorce in this county be made more difficult. If Chatham had only her own marital infelicities to take care of, there would be no ground for complaint, but it is quite well understood that Chatham is made a sort of domestic clearing house for not a small part of South Carolina and some parts of Georgia. South Carolina will not grant a divorce under any circumstances. The result is that Carolinians who find their married lives intolerable come over here, establish citizenship by a year's residence and then go into court for relief. The records, of course, show so many divorces for Chatham county, without showing the circumstances. The recommendation of the grand jury on this matter is in line with the best thought of the community.—Savannah News.

When Secretary MacVeagh, of the National Treasury, informed Governor Kitchin and Treasurer Lacy that the government held $50,000 worth of the old North Carolina Railroad bonds, and demanded principal and interest on same, Senator Overman promptly informed him that the government owed North Carolina $44,000 for cotton belonging to this State and seized during the war in Georgia, which was sold and the proceeds turned into the national treasury, and that the government was not paying its bills as promptly as it should, and suggested that one acount be an offset to the other on the basis of 25 cents on the dollar, that being the settlement effected with the Shaffer syndicate who held some of the same bonds. Senator Overman further suggested that a commission be appointed to settle the matter, both the State and the government to be represented on the board. Treasurer MacVeagh finally agreed to the suggestion of the Senator for the appointment of a commission to adjust the debt and Senator Overman has written to Governor Kitchin for authority to act in the matter. As he is a member of the Appropriations Committee, he thinks he will be able to have the bill put on the appropriation bill, giving authority for appointment of the commission both by the government and the Governor. It would seem that it is as fair for the government to settle its obligations as the State, but it is quite within the range of reason to believe that the government would have never paid for that cotton if it had not found a counter claim to interpose against it.—Wilson Times.

There is need for a reduction of expenses all along the line in the Agricultural Department. This is particularly true in the Division of Oil Inspection. On page 165 of the Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture it will be found that receipts from the Oil Department from June, 1909, to November, 1910, inclusive, were $73,960.10. There was spent by the department in inspection, etc., $41,270.29. There was turned over to the State Treasurer $30,500, leaving $2,189.87 "subject to warrant." Out of this fund is paid a yearly salary of $250 to the Commissioner. Whether this is in addition to his salary of $3,250 from other funds, or whether the oil division is charged with $250 of his salary is not stated, and the secretary of the Board of Agriculture is also paid from this fund $200 a year. There is no good reason why the same inspectors should not look after fertilizer, seed and oil, thus saving much money in traveling expenses. The State Treasury ought to have for its pressing needs more than $30,000 out of the $73,960.10 collected. The total receipts of the Agricultural Department last year were $164,459.46. To this must be added the $73,960.10 from the oil inspection department (June, 1909, to November, 1910), making a total in receipts of $238,419.56. Of this sum, $30,500 was paid from the oil fund into the State Treasury, leaving $207,919.56 disbursed by the Department of Agriculture. These figures and an examination in detail of the expenditures of the Department speak trumpet-tongued for the passage of the Dowd bill to marry the Agricultural Department to the A. & M. College.—Raleigh News and Observer.

This paper has so often recommended the progressive measures and methods of government in Guilford county and Greensboro that it is pleasant to see that opinion held by others. The Wilmington Star says in its Sunday's issue: "We never will cease to admire Greensboro's way of getting what she wants. When anything is wanted the men of that city get together and go after it right now. While Wilmington, Raleigh, Asheville and other cities have been "figuring on" the commission form of government, Greensboro rushed her bill through the General Assembly, held a referendum election, adopted the new form at the polls, and in two weeks or less will have her commission form of doing business. We are stuck on hustling like that and we can't help admiring the Greensboro spirit—the one thing which has evidently made North Carolina's Gate City one of the State's notable industrial and business centers." Raleigh and Wilmington always take up too much of the time of the Legislature. As the legislators are in Raleigh all the time, naturally, the division of opinion in Raleigh is voiced to legislators, and Wilmington folks come here very often. In Greensboro, the people thresh out these matters and the Legislature passes the bills desired by Guilford's legislators. If the legislators gave as much time to hearings from the citizens of Greensboro as they do to citizens of Raleigh, they would probably delay Guilford measures as much as they do Wake measures. No bad measure ought to pass, no matter who introduces it, but the only safe ground for legislators to take is to assume that the Senators and Representatives elected by the people of Wake know what the people want and their bills are entitled to the same favorable consideration as is given to the measures presented by legislators from Currituck and Cherokee. The burden of proof is on those who object to measures introduced by legislators.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Mrs. Drummond and Underwriters Offer $10,000 for Recovery.

New York, March 1.—The London underwriters, with whom Mrs. Maldwin Drummond has insured her stolen pearls and rings, offered a reward here today of $5,000 for their return. Mrs. Drummond, who was formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., of Chicago, has previously been quoted as saying on her own account also that she would willingly give at least $5,000 for the return of her jewels.

The theft was on board the steamship Amerika some time between 10:30 Saturday night and 9:30 the following morning and was first reported here Sunday night when the Amerika docked. At that time the value of the jewelry was estimated at $130,000 through sentimental associations Mrs. Drummond held it priceless.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Sentences Aggregating Three Years and Five Months Imposed Yesterday Morning—Convict Gets Long Term.

Sentences aggregating three years and five months were imposed upon defendants in the Recorder's court yesterday morning. It was the most fruitful session of court in this respect held in some time. The sentences ranged from 30 days to 12 months, one defendant, against whom there were two charges, drawing a total of two years.

John Hollins, colored, was the defendant to receive the longest term on the roads. Hollins was charged in one warrant with assault with deadly weapon upon Mr. W. B. Brown, night watchman for the A. C. L., and in another with forcible trespass on property of Julia James, colored, the offenses having been committed last Saturday night was a week ago, while the defendant, a convict, serving a term of 30 days, was in town to aid a camp guard in locating another negro wanted by the authorities. It seems that Hollins became separated from the guard for a short time and endeavored to see how much trouble he could make for himself. Observing Mr. Brown standing near corner of Sixth and Nixon streets, the negro accosted him and then assaulted him with a brick bat, inflicting a painful wound in the forehead, which necessitated attention at the hospital. Leaving Mr. Brown lying in the street with blood flowing from the wound in his head, the negro went to the home of Elliott James, colored, and after forcing himself into the house made an assault upon James, for which he was given 30 days on the roads in Justice Harriss' court Tuesday. Hollins returned to the convict camp early the next morning and his appearance is said to have indicated that he had been in a vigorous fight. The Recorder found the defendant guilty of both assault and forcible trespass and gave him 12 months on the county roads in each case.

Gellie James, coolred, was arraigned on the charge of larceny of a bicycle from the Queen City Cycle Co. The negro entered a plea of not guilty to the larceny charge, but said that he would plead guilty to receiving the bicycle knowing it to have been stolen. The warrant was amended to charge receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, and a sentence of 12 months on the county roads was imposed. James refused to tell the name of the person from whom he claims to have secured the bicycle.

Ben Williams, coored, was found guilty of assault with deadly weapon upon Chas. Raleigh, colored, and was given three months on the roads. Fannie Williams and Lou Bell Davis, colored women, were found guilty of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and given 30 days each on the county farm. The cases against Pars Nixon and Sid. Wilson, colored, charged with assault with deadly weapon upon "Nig" Sharpless, also colored, at Castle Haynes some days ago, will be investigated Saturday.

LOCAL RIVER AND HARBOR.

Project Well Taken Care of In Bill Now Passed National Congress.

Awaiting only the signature of President Taft, the National Rivers and Harbors Bill will soon become law. It is gratifying to know that the local project have been well taken care of and satisfaction is expressed by the North Carolina Waterways Association with the measure as it applies to North Carolina waters. The bill carries an additional $100,000 for th Cape Fear at and below Wilmington in addition to $615,000 for the upper Cape Fear project. Out of the $100,000 appropriation for the lower Cape Fear is $1,000 for dredging a suitable channel to "Harper's Pier," at Carolina Beach, which improvement has long been needed. There are now six dredges at work on the Cape Fear and the dream of a 30-foot channel to the sea is being rapidly realized. Ere long it is expected that this will be the goal to which the government will bend its energies with respect to the Cape Fear.

ANOTHER CARGO MOLASSES.

The Schooner Harry W. Haynes Coming to C. C. Covington Co.

The schooner Harry W. Haynes is expected to arrive within the next few days with another cargo of molasses from Barbados for the C. C. Covington Company. The vessel has been cleared from the latter port long enough to arrive here.

The Haynes will bring a medium-sized cargo and will be the first of the year to the Covington Company. Several cargoes of the fine molasses from Barbados were imported by the Covington Company last year and the enterprising firm has found a large sale for the imported product. The vessel will doubtless be here the first of next week.

Sent Over to Recorder.

In Justice Harriss' court yesterday morning George Bishop, colored, was given hearing on the charge of assault with deadly weapon upon Hattie Williams, also colored, and probable cause being found, the defendant was bound over to the Recorder's court, where the case will be investigated today. It is alleged that Bishop cut the woman with a knife, but not seriously. Mary Ella Boon Bishop, wife of George Bishop, was tried for simple asault upon Hattie Williams, and was required to pay the costs of the action.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Governing Navigation of Cape Fear River at and Below Wilmington Issued Yesterday Through Engineer Office.

Through the local United States engineer office there were issued yesterday copies of the rules and regulations prescribed on February 18th last by Robert Shaw Oliver, Assistant Secretary of War, governing navigation on the Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington. Copies were sent out from Capt. Earl I. Brown's office to the pilots and other steamboat men and some were posted in the Customs House, postoffice and other public places. The regulations will probably be of some general interest and are given below:

"1. A vessel approaching a dredge at work and wishing to pass will give three blasts of the whistle from as great a distance from the dredge as same may be heard; this will be answered by the dredge with three blasts from its whistle. If the first three blasts from the vessel are not answered by the dredge, the vessel will repeat them until they are answered.

"After the vessel has given three whistles, and received three from the dredge in answer, the master or pilot of the vessel must keep his ship under control and prevent it from getting so near the dredge that it can do damage or cause a collision, provided the dredge is not ready for the vessel to pass.

"Vessels should give the dredges plenty of time to get out of the channel, as it will take from five to ten minutes for a clam-shell dredge, and from 10 to 30 minutes for a pipe-line dredge, to get out.

"2. Dredges will indicate the side on which vessels should pass by display during the day time on that side three white flags about five feet above one another, and at night three white lights similarly placed. Vessels are authorized to pass dredges displaying these signals without waiting for further whistle signals.

"3. Steamers passing the dredges shall reduce their speed to six miles per hour and shall stop their propelling machinery entirely when they are abreast of a dredge.

"4. Vessels drawing over 15 feet will not be allowed to navigate Snow's Marsh cut between the upper quarantine buoy and No. 13 buoy from sundown until sun-up unless permission to do so is granted them in each case by the engineer office; and vessels excepted from this rule, i. e., those drawing less than 15 feet, must pass so as not to require the breaking of any pipe line for its passage.

"5. Tugs with more than one vessel in tow will not be allowed to pass dredges.

"6. In case masters or pilots of vessels consider that they have been unnecessarily detained in passing any dredge, they may submit a written report of the same to the engineer officer, who will investigate and correct same in future."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

Important Public Meeting Will be Held in Court House Tonight.

An important public meeting of the Wilmington Civic League will be held in the Court House this evening, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, and it is earnestly hoped that there will be a large attendance of those interested in civic improvement. The men of the city are given a special invitation to be present and the lady members of the organization are charged with the responsibility of inducing their husbands to be present and take part in the discussion of the plans for a more beautiful, cleaner and healthier Wilmington. The sanitary and civic improvement committees of the Chamber of Commerce are also extended a special invitation to be present.

At the meeting tonight plans for a button campaign will be discussed, as will also the matter of the "Sanitary Sunday" and street-cleaning week, which are to follow the lecture on civic improvement on March 8th, by Mr. G. Horace McFarland, president of the National Civic Association. The officers of the League extend an invitation to the general public to attend the meeting tonight and enlist in the civic improvement campaign.

IN CHARGE SEAMEN'S HOME.

Mr. H. Willoughby New Superintendent—General Improvements.

The Seamen's Home, at the corner of Front and Dock streets, which has been temporarily closed, was reopened this week and is now in charge of Mr. H. Willoughby, who has been appointed superintendent. Mr. Herman Schlieve, who conducted the Home for about a year recently resigned at the meeting of the committee in charge of the Home, and the place was closed until a new superintendent could be secured. The reading room remained open for visiting seamen during the time.

It will be recalled that during the past year a handsome new chapel was built in connection with the Home and many other improvements were made to add to the comfort of the seamen while in this port. The new superintendent is capable of managing the home to the best interests of the seamen. There will be further improvements of a minor nature in the rooms and otherwise about the Home in the near future.

NAVIGATION AND PILOTAGE

Official Report of Proceedings of Board of Commissioners in Regular Monthly Session Yesterday—Soundings.

Wilmington, N. C., March 1, 1911.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage was held today with the following present, namely: Chairman James Sprunt, Vice Chairman J. W. Harper, Commissioners Richard Dosher and H. G. Smalbones, and Clerk L. Brown McKoy.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, as they had already been published in the newspapers and read by the Commissioners.

Captain William St. George, commissioner-elect, sent word by Commissioner Dosher that he was indisposed and unable to be present, but that he would qualify and would be prepared at the next meeting of the Board to assume his duties.

The Clerk reported that in accordance with instructions from the Board at the last meeting, he had requested Pilot T. M. Morse to appear before the Commisioners and explain his failure to serve on two soundings committees upon which he was appointed. Pilot Morse reported to the Chairman and reminded him of a verbal agreement to excuse him from serving on the soundings committees in question, which was confirmed. In future, however, such excuses will only be accepted in writing, in acordance with the regulations, and will be passed upon at the subsequent meeting of the Board.

The clerk reported that he had received no reply from Pilot J. L. Pinner, who was appointed one of the soundings committee for January, but who did not serve, and who was instructed to show cause why his pilotage branch should not be cancelled, for being absent from his station without leave. Action on this matter was ordered deferred.

In reference to the request of Captain J. B. Church, that the slough near Bald Head be buoyed, the clerk stated that he had taken this matter up with Commander H. A. Field, Inspector of the Sixth Lighthouse District, at Charleston, who reported adversely, on the ground that he has not the means at his disposal for carrying out the project. Commander Field says, in part: "The buoys could not be attended by the Cypress, which vessel is the only one in this district capable of doing buoy work * * * the Cypress draws too much water to risk going through the slue even at high tide."

The chairman reported, in the matter of carrying away of Stake Light No. 11, by the British steamship Soutra, while in charge of Pilot St. George that Inspector Field insisted upon the steamer making good the damage, and the matter was settled acordingly, the steamer paying $66.65 in full, as per vouchers furnished.

The harbor master's report for quarter ending January 31, 1911, was accepted and ordered filed. The grand total for the quarter was as follows: vessels arrived 89; tonnage 127,790; harbor master fees collected $441.00; check to clerk (1-3 of fees) $147.00.

Vice Chairman J. W. Harper reported that Pilot J. W. Craig, representing the commissioners and a majority of the pilots, and also the Chamber of Commerce, by special authority, proceeded to Raleigh last Monday and appeared before the committee of the General Assembly, having for consideration an amendment of the pilotage laws, providing for permission to pilots to engage in fishing, for gain, in connection with their duties as pilots; and Mr. Craig having shown, to the satisfaction of the committee, that such an amendment of the law would be inimical to the maritime interests of Wilmington, that it would weaken the effectiveness of the pilotage force, and place the more industrious ones at a disadvantage, and would also be contrary to the regulations established by the Board for several years past—the committee reported the bill adversely.

Report of the monthly soundings committee for February was received and ordered filed. The report was dated February 26th, and shows depth, in feet, at high water, with a rise of tide of three feet, three inches. The soundings were as follows:

From the sea buoy to buoy No. 1, least depth 32; greatest depth 36.

From buoy No. 1 to buoy No. 3, least depth 33; greatest depth 35.

From buoy No. 3 to buoy No. 2, least depth 34; greatest depth 35.

From buoy No. 2 to buoy No. 4, least depth 31; greatest depth 33.

From buoy No. 4, to buoy No. 4 1-2, least depth 33; greatest depth 34.

Pilot O. D. Burriss, who was appointed a member of the above soundings committee, failed to sign the report, and the clerk was instructed to ascertain the reason for his failure to serve.

L. BROWN McKOY, Clerk.

THE GEORGE DAVIS MONUMENT

Placed in Position Yesterday at Third and Market Streets—Something of The Sculptor and His Work.

The handsome bronze statue of the Honorable George Davis, attorney general of the Southern Confederacy, was yesterday placed in position at Third and Market streets, where it was seen and admired by many. It stands nearly six feet high and is a work of real art, being considered a most faithful likeness of the subject by many who enjoyed the privilege of acquaintance with the distinguished Wilmingtonian during his life.

But few Wilmington people who will see the very artistic and life-like statue of the Hon. George Davis, which was placed on its pedestal yesterday are aware that its sculptor, Mr. F. H. Packer, is among the leaders in his profession in this country and that his reputation is well known among art critics abroad. Mr. Packer studied under the eminent St. Gaudens and assisted in some of his most celebrated works. The splendid bronze statue of Worth Bagley in the Capitol Square in Raleigh is the product of his genius and competent judges who have seen it consider it a masterpiece. He has recently finished a bronze statue of Mr. August Belmont which was started by J. Q. A. Ward shortly before his death and the completion of this work was so skillfully treated by Mr. Packer that Mrs. Ward insisted that his name as well as that of the originator should appear as its author. Mr. Packer has recently done some splendid work under the eminent sculptor, Daniel C. French, and is, at present, working with Mr. French on an equestrian statue of General Draper, of Massachusetts, which will probably rank among the foremost bronzes in this country.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, through whose efforts, assisted by Mr. James Sprunt, the statue to Mr. Davis was made possible were indeed fortunate in securing the services of so talented an artist as Mr. Packer; and those who knew his subject best do not think it possible that a more characteristic pose or a more perfect likeness could have been produced.

It is said that an effort will be made to induce the young man to marry the girl he is alleged to have wronged, in which event the prosecution would, of course, be dropped. SALESROOMS NOW OPEN.

Gibbes' Machinery Company in Handsome Quarters in Krahnke Store.

The Gibbes' Machinery Company have mailed out a number of invitations announcing the opening of their automobile salesrooms at 111 Chestnut street, this city.

One is agreeably surprised to find such beautifully arranged show room with the latest models of Chalmers and Hudson cars attractively grouped about the well appointed room. The walls are finished in a pale tint of green, the overhead in pure white and the floor a deep shad of brown. About the walls are hung attractive pictures one of which shows a birds-eye view of the home plant of the company at Columbia. This picture shows very strongly the size of the company behind "The Gibbes' Guarantee."

One of the Gibbes' representatives being asked how they were pleased with the outlook for business in Wilmington, he replied: "Well, we don't expect to be exactly overwhelmed with business at the start but we are here to stay and we know we have the goods backed by a strong company such as we represent will win out in the end. There are just lots of good staid, conservative Wilmington people that have not bought cars, but who will in the near future when the matter is properly brought to their attention. Our line of cars embrace the well known Chalmers and Hudson and we have recently completed arrangements to handle the Packard account beginning with the season of 1912. With us the business of selling and maintaining cars is reduced to a business pure and simple and not as a game, for we have immense faith in the future of the business when conducted along these lines."

Mr. E. A. Jenkins, head salesman for the Gibbes' Company, is here assisting Mr. McCreight, the local manager, in getting things going. He is also much impressed with Wilmington as a distributing center for motor cars, and looks forward with much pleasure to meeting a great number of Wilmington folks at the Gibbes' salesroom in the Kranhke biulding.

The Gibbes' Company has employed Mr. J. N. Huske of this city, as salesman and Mr. Huske will naturally feel gratified to have all his friends and their friends' friends look him up with a view to serving them in the selection of a car.

Suffered Ill Effects of Pills.

After a violent illness of two days, caused from eating sugar-coated patent medicine pills given him on the street by a negro youth, Master H. B. Goodnight, Jr., the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Goodnight, of No. 408 North Front street, is gradually recovering. The little fellow was told by the negro boy, who was evidently engaged to distribute the patent medicine, that the pills were candy, and, being of such tender age, he was easily misled, as the pills were sugar-coated. A short time later he became violently ill and for some time after the arrival of a physician his condition was regarded as critical. Mr. Goodnight did not learn until a day later the cause of his son's illness.

NAVAL BILL TO SENATE.

Measure Recently Passed By House—Amendment Adopted.

Washington, March 1.—The naval appropriation was reported to the Senate today. The naval programme as amended includes two first-class battleships, a submarine tender and two gunboats. The bill appropriates $126,400,838, an increase of $1,190,700 over the amount fixed by the House.

Under an amendment adopted today the 8-hour law will apply only to the construction of the battleships. An unsuccessful effort was made to have it extend to the entire construction programme.

The Senate retained the provision of the public bill declaring that no part of the appropriations for the building of the battleships shall be paid to any concern which operates as a combination in restraint of trade. This provision, which was offered in the House by Representative Stanly, of Kentucky, is directed at the steel trust. Lawyers in the Senate say it will be ineffective as the Navy Department cannot discriminate against any concern until the courts have declared what concerns are a part of the so-called steel trust.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT MARION THIS WEEK.

Marion, S. C., Marsh 1.—Wedding bells have never rung more merrily than they did in Marion this week.

The marriage of Miss Mattie May McIntyre and Mr. David Eugene Harllee has been the event of the season, and it was preceded by a series of beautiful social functions, all Marion seeming to delight in doing honor to the fair young bride.

The reception given the bridal party on Monday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Archie McIntyre was beautiful in all its appointments. The color scheme throughout the house was pink and white. Graceful Southern smilax, palms and ferns were everywhere, and the bride's table was especially lovely with its wealth of pink carnations and rose shaded candles. Even the wedding favors, dainty Cinderella slippers, carried out the effect of couleur de rose.

A delicious course supper was served to about one hundred guests, among whom were Mrs. Elizabeth Harllee, of Greensboro, N. C., mother of the groom; Mr. Guerry Mullins, of Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. J. F. Prettyman, Summerville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shirmer, Charleston; Capt. and Mrs. Duncan McIntyre, Winona; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McIntyre, Mullins; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Manning, Dillon; Miss Marguerite Adams, Charleston, and Miss Annie McIntyre, Mullins.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. O. K. LaRoque entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a most beautiful luncheon. The heart motif was in evidence throughout the various courses, and before leaving the attendants were handed dainty bon bons, one of which bore a lucky number. Miss Nona Stackhouse was so fortunate as to draw this, and was presented with a beautiful brass basket filled with sweet peas. The bride received a silver watch holder in heart design.

Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the Church of the Advent, Miss Mattie May McIntyre and Mr. David Eugene Stuart Harllee were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev. H. Cook Salmond officiating. The decorations were churchly and beautiful. Gothic arches of smilax and narcissus spanned the chancel and numberless waxen tapers shed a soft glow over the scene. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered. The ushers, Messrs T. J. McDaniel, Charlotte, N. C.; T. C. Montgomery, Henry Mullins and B. C. Harllee, Greensboro, N. C., preceded the attendants who were Miss Annie Stackhouse with Dr. R. O. Deas, Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Mattie Siltoncox, Charleston, with Dr. T. W. Hamilton; Miss Edna Elberbe, with Mr. E. D. Somperac, Columbia, and Miss Nona Stackhouse, with A. C. Coffin, Greensboro, N. C. Miss Agnes Dupre, maid of honor, entered alone and was followed by the bride in all of her fresh young beauty leaning on the arm of her father. The groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Earl Harlee, of Greensboro, N. C., entered from the vestry, meeting the bride at the chancel rail.

The beautiful ring service was used, and when the benediction was pronounced and Mattie May McIntyre became Mrs. Harlee, the loving thoughts and good wishes of all who had known her throughout her happy childhood and girlhood went with her into this new phase of her life.

In the wedding, as at the reception, the bride's favorite colors, rose and white, were used. The bridal gown was of heavy brocaded satin with trimmings of real lace and pearls, and the long tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried an exquisite shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore dainty creations of crepe de chine, two of the gowns being rose and two white. They carried armsful of carnations. The maid of honor wore pink crepe de chine and carried bridesmaid roses.

The merry party of young people gathered at the station to speed the happy pair in the usual way were disappointed to find that their good wishes must be sent via wireless, as Mr. and Mrs. Harlee had slipped away by auto to Dillon where they boarded the Northbound train.

The bride, as Miss Mattie May McIntyre, has been a favorite in Marion society. Mr. Harlee is a popular young traveling man, representing the Interior Hardwood & Screen Company, of Charlotte, N. C.

COULDN'T FINISH HER SWEEPING

Friends Offered Advice to Mrs. Hoffman When She Was Too Weak to Work.

Dallas, N. C.—"I was sick for three years," writes Mrs. Edith Hoffman, from this place, "and I thought I would not get well. I suffered agonies with my side, and back, and dreadful soreness. I tried our family physicians but they seemed to do me no good. Often, I was so dizzy and weak that I couldn't sweep my house without stopping to rest.

One day, one of my friends advised me to use Cardui. I began using it, and inside of three days, I felt better. Now, I am a well woman again. I am able to do my work better than I had been all my life. I am cured of my stomach trouble, and feel well at all times.

Cardui is the medicine for women to take. I shall always advise my friends to keep Cardui in their homes, and would be glad if all women knew what it would do for them."

Cardui will certainly do for you, what it has done for thousands of others who suffered with similar trouble.

Its ingredients are not for sale separately in the drug store. The only way to get the Cardui benefit is by taking the genuine Cardui, which every druggist sells.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

..Theatrical..

Mirth, melody and music is the keynote of the performance to be given by the famous Black Patti Musical Comedy Company at the Academy tonight.

Those sweeet singers and ebony colored fun-makers of Dixie Land have been recognized for many years as a high-class standard attraction and one that has scored a phenomenal popular success with the theatregoers in all sections of the country. Among the forty dancers and comedians in the ranks of the Black Patti show are to be found the most talented Afro-Americans in the world. Black Patti, the vocal star of the organization, in addition to being the most gifted singer of her race, enjoys the distinction of having sung before the largest audiences that ever assembled in Madison Square Garden, New York City, to sing before the former Prince of Wales, afterward King Edward VII of England. In this country the Black Patti show through their refined and enjoyable stage performances, have added largely to the musical culture of the people. Their revival of the sweet melodies of the South—reminiscent of antebellum days—the plantation, the cotton fields and the levee has been a musical revelation to millions.

The usual reservation has been made for whites and seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

Big Baseball Film at Bijou.

The usual excellent bill at the Bijou theatre today will be featured with an attractive baseball picture, entitled "The World's Championship Baseball Series of 1910," won by the Philadelphia Athletics from the Chicago Cubs, in games played at Philadelphia and Chicago. The series is historic in that the former greatest baseball machine, with a record of four National League pennants and two world's championship, was overwhelmingly defeated with a score of 4 to 1 by a team which has been regarded as a minor team in the American League. The graphic film story of the big event which will be shown at the Bijou today is composed of the choicest bits and most important plays in the entire five games. Happily, the photographers were blessed with four sunny days and excellent photography has been the result. The film is liberally supplied with subtitles, explaining plays and designating the famous players. There will doubtless be a large attendance of the fans at the theatre today. In addition to the baseball picture there will be shown "Reggie's Engagement" and "His Sergeant's Stripes."

Grand Theatre.

Too much cannot be said about Mr. McAnnallan, the new tenor at the "Theatre Beautiful." His tone is beautiful, pleasing and perfect, very essential achievements for a successful singer. The young tenor has held several very important engagements and is well known in New York music circles. Yesterday Mr. McAnnallan sang, "Coe, I Wish I Had My Old Girl Back Again," and those who were fortunate enough to hear him, spoke very highly of his efforts, and he was forced to respond to several encores. Today's song is "We've Kept the Golden Rule," which is one of the very latest New York hits and is beautifully illustrated. Today's pictures are especially fine, the great Vitagraph production of "The League of Mercy" being the leader. Other pictures are "The Early Settlers," "Hubby's Troubles," which is a big comedy, and a beautiful colored picture showing scenes in China. The orchestra will play a programme of operatic music and Mr. Kneisel will play as a request number a violin solo. The musical part of the programme will be unusually good, and will please all lovers of music. Doors open daily at 11 A. M.

At the Crystal Palace.

The innovation inaugurated at the Crystal Palace consisting of a continuous performance starting at 3:30 P. M. for ladies and children, has met with great success, as was shown by the large attendance yesterday afternoon. A performance of two hours' duration has never before been attempted nor conceived in Wilmington for ten cents. Six high-class photoplays, an illustrated song, three of the best vaudeville acts on the variety stage, comprising Will Summers, Dixie Taylor, with his dog Jasper, and Van & Clark, the big hit of the season. A treat is in store for those who have attended the Crystal this week, since each act will make a distinct change today.

Joyland.

Amateur night was pulled off at Joyland very successfully, three packed houses witnessing the high-class performing of the gest talent in the city. Besides the names given several days ago, "Judge" Bornemann was on the programme and delighted the crowds with several selections at each performance. The dancing was superb, the jokes new, and everyone was delighted with the whole show. Today and tomorrow will be shown three great Western pictures you have been hearing about. "The Western Round-up," a very costly production, secured by the management at great expense, forces them to advance the admission to 10 cents for these two days only, but they guarantee full value received to everyone.

Portion of Trestle Burned.

Traffic on the W. C. & A. road of the Atlantic Coast Line was seriously interfered with yesterday on account of the burning Tuesday night of a portion of the bridge near Nichols, S. C. The passenger train leaving here early yesterday morning was unable to go through, and it was necessary to transfer the passengers and mail at the scene, the train returning to Wilmington about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The portion of the track burned was repaired in time for the late train last night, it arriving only about an hour late.

PUBLISHERS CALL ON TAFT.

Talks to Them About Increased Postage on Magazines.

Washington, March 1.—Magazine editors and publishers from various parts of the country called on President Taft to urge further investigation into the postal rates that their publications should pay. The President welcomed the visit of the publishers, whose spokesman was T. J. Zimmerman, editor of System, and in answering them declared that as long as he was in office he was "going ahead to bring about a proper adjustment" of magazine rates.

"You may be able to defeat the present proposal," the President told them, "but as long as I have any power I am going to recommend the consideration of this question until it is settled.

"It is not in the slightest spirit of hostility to the magazines that I have made this recommendation, but because I am responsible for the government of the United States and the administration of it."

It is understood, although the President did not tell the publishers so, that he would be willing to see a further investigation providing the amendment increasing the magazine postal rates does not pass at this time.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS SPEAKER

Condemned the Uniform Rate Charges Plan—Convention.

Nashville, Tenn., March 1.—Senator-elect John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, speaking at the Parcels Post convention here today, said the proposed parcels post scheme was generally good, but condemned the uniform rate charges plan. He contended a parcels post system was sure to be inaugurated sooner or later, but construction of the law governing it should be done carefully he said.

Frank W. Wentworth, of Boston, spoke on the enormous fire loss of merchants. The delegates are principally Southern merchants.

ANOTHER ADVANCE IN COTTON

Market Displayed Reactionary Tendency During Early Trading But Prices Firmed Up Near the Close.

New York, March 1.—The cotton market showed a somewhat reactionary tendency at times during today's trading, as the big advance from the recent low level appeared to attract considerable realizing, but while quite a sharp set-back occurred during the middle of the day, prices firmed up again, reaching the highest point of the movement in the late trading with the close steady at a net advance of from 5 to 9 points on active crop months. The new crop was two points net lower.

The opening was steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points in sympathy with reactionary cables, but there was a continuation of yesterday's covering movement and a renewal of bull support on the call which soon sent active positions up to a net advance of 4 to 6 points with May common selling at 14.55. At this level offerings became heavier, there were indication that some leading longs were reducing their lines, and local professionals became rather more aggressive on the short side owing to increased estimates of the week's into sight, prdictions of a falling off in the export movement, and reports that the demand for spot cotton was not following the advance above 14.50 for May. Prices eased off in consequence, May selling down to 14.44 or five points net lower, while July broke to a net loss of about 10 points, but bulls gave renewed support on the decline and following rumors from Washington that the Senate had agreed to vote on the reciprocity bill thus obviating the necessity for an extra session and rendering action upon the Scott bill still more unlikely, there was a renewal of general buying which included covering by early sellers and which sent May contracts up to 14.59, or 10 points net higher, nearly $4.50 per bale above the low level of February 16th. The close was within a point or two of the top. New crop months were quiet and relatively easy all day, as Southern advices indicated a generally favorable preliminary new crop outlook.

Receipts at the prts today 16,941 bales, against 14,356 last week and 16,766 last year; for the week 95,000 bales against 108,045 last week and 73,091 last year. Total receipts at New Orleans today nothing against 1,029 last year, and at Houston 2,514 bales against 1,926 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 15 points higher; middling uplands 14.60; middling gulf 14.85; sales undelivered on contract 58,300 bales. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

ACTIVE DAY IN STOCK MARKET

Largest Short Interest Since Last Fall Sent Prices Upward—Professional Speculators Controlled Dealings.

New York, March 1.—Maneuvering of professional speculators was chiefly responsible for such prices changes as occurred today on the stock exchange. The existence of what is generally termed the largest short interest since last Fall furnished the incentive for an active covering movement which sent prices upward.

There was still little public participation and little news on which to base operations so that traders were left free handed to gain what advantage they could from purely professional tactics. Stocks were held firmly for higher figures whenever any extensive demand appeared, and prices advanced at the outset. In the early trading Canadian Pacific gained two points, and Atchison, Erie, Reading, Union Pacific, Distillers securities and International Paper one. There was a slight recession before noon and the appearance of a number of unfavorable railroad reports may have been responsible for the further shading of prices later. The close showed few important changes for the day.

Canadian Pacific was exceptionally strong, recovering the greater part of its dividend of 2 1-2 per cent. Extensive buying of Missouri Pacific was resumed, but there was little demand for other Harriman issues.

Some of the largest railway systems submitted their January figures today and they were not encouraging. The Pennsylvania system reported a decrease in net operating revenue for all lines of $2,108,000. All of the larger lines of the New York Central showed decreases, the New York Central proper earning $504,000 less net, the Lake Shore $398,000, and Michigan Central, New York, Chicago & St. Louis and Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis lesser amounts. Union Pacific decrease was $263,000; Southern Pacific's $682,000; Canadian Pacific's $660, and Reading $206,000. Reports of further extensive railroad financing were not confirmed officially, although it is known that negotiations are under way. The rate at which new securities have been placed on the market of late is shown by the totals of new bonds, which are given at $215,958,000, an increase of $119,159,000 over February of last year.

European markets were dull and slightly inclined toward irregularity, a condition more generally ascribed to the advent of the Lenten season than the actual development of a financial character. Money was firm in London, but discounts were weaker.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,123,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 267,900 shares.

QUICK ADVANCE IN COTTON.

In Late Trading on Market Yesterday. Liverpool Did Not Respond.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, March 1.—Europe has secured so large a proportion of her requirements that the Liverpool market did not fully respond to the advance here. This led to realizing on the opening and a moderate decline, to be followed by a quick advance during the last hour, caused by the belief that the major portion of our stock had passed into strong hands, movement of last year. To the ordinary mind the situation does not warrant an upward movement, except to the extent of a moderate reaction from the low point, as trade conditions do not improve as expected. The close was at the best prices with the trade looking for an advance in Liverpool of from 5 to 7 points tomorrow.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

RATES ON COTTON INVOLVED.

Important Hearings at Montgomery and Atlanta This Week.

Washington, March 1.—Two important cases involving rates on cotton and the compression of cotton in transit from points of origin to points of ultimate destination, are to be heard this week and next at Montgomery, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga.

It is expected that representatives of both cotton growers and cotton shippers and buyers from all sections of the cotton belt will attend the hearings, as they are of vital interest to their business.

So important are the cases regarded by the Inter-State Commerce Commission that Chairman Clements personally will hear the testimony. He left Washington tonight for Montgomery, where he will hear the preliminary teestimony on Friday and Saturday. On Monday he will begin the hearing of evidence in the cases at Atlanta. It is probable that the hearings will continue for several days next week.

The cases are the Commercial & Industrial Association, of Union Springs, Ala., against the Central of Georgia Railroad and others and the Railroad Commission of Alabama against the Central of Georgia and other carriers.

The cases are of immense consequence to the cotton growers and cotton buyers, and, aside from the great rate, cases recently decided by the committee are among the most notable proceedings ever brought to the attention of the commission.

During Chairman Clements' absence he will visit his old home at Rome, Ga., where he will deliver an address upon the subject of freight rate regulation.

SEQUEL TO MUTINY AT STA.

Arrest in Baltimore May Reveal Another Tragedy—Details.

Baltimore, March 1.—As a sequel to the murder of Capt. Aldie Dorsey, of the oyster sloop Irene and Ruth, by a mutinous crew and the killing of a negro seaman at the same time, off Colonial Beach last January, Daniel Haddaway, a saloon-keeper of this city, was arrested today by Assistant United States Marshal Zimmerman on a charge of shanghaiing John A. McNamara, of Williamsport, Pa. McNamara was drowned when he tried to make his escape from the sloop, clad only in silk underwear. Haddaway was held under $1,000 bail by United States Commissioner Bond for a re-hearing next Wednesday.

According to the story told by the Federal officials, Mr. McNamara came to Baltimore from Richmond, Va., on his way back to his home in Williamsport, Pa. He is said to have gone into Haddaway's saloon, on East Pratt street. There it is said, his fine clothes and the roll of money he displayed attracted the inmates, and the Federal officials assert McNamara was drugged and robbed. Then, it is said, his unconscious body was placed on the Irene and Ruth and oyster bugeye and carried down the bay as a member of the crew.

The mutiny occurred two weeks after the drowning of McNamara.

CANAL BONDS BILL PASSED.

Means of Protection for Outstanding United States Bonds.

Washington, March 1.—The House today passed the bill recommended by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh providing that none of the $290,000,000 of Panama Canal bonds authorized in the Payne Tariff law shall be received as security for the issue of circulating notes.

The purpose of the legislation, it is said, is to protect the $700,000 000 or 2 per cent United States bonds now outstanding from depreciation. The new bonds are to bear a rate of 3 per cent. but without the circulation privilege they will not be as valuable to the national banks as the 2 per cents. On the other hand, it is argued that if the new 3 per cent. bonds were allowed the circulation privilege, many of the 2s would be thrown on the market.

The opposition to the bill largely was on the Democratic side. The Treasury Department proposes to issue the 3s in small lots, as investment bonds pure and simple and expects to get a market from individuals rather than from any of the big banking houses or firms.

The final vote on the passage of the bill was 168 to 135. The bill already had passed the Senate.

SALVATION ARMY CAMPS

For Mothers and Children.

Hundreds of tired mothers and sickly children were given fresh air and rest during the past Summer by the Salvation Army at its fresh air camps.

There are many tired mothers who have sickly children who were not fortunate enough to be given such an outing and we ask those mothers as a duty to themselves and their children to read the two following letters:

Mrs. Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, who has done so much good among the children of New York City, says:

"Little children seem to delight in taking Vinol. In my work among the destitute sick, I give Vinol in many cases where it would be impossible to give cod liver oil in any other form, on account of the extreme weakness of the patient's stomach. I have known Vinol to restore appetite and infuse new life in many cases of sick women and children when everything else failed."

Mrs. C. W. Stump, Canton, O., says: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try the delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, as it restored health and strength to our daughter after all else had failed."

Vinol is a boon to weak mothers and sickly children. If it fails to give satisfaction we will refund your money.—Robert P Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

rose to see what the object of all this denunciation would do. There was an instant of tense silence.

"The gentleman is not in his seat," Mr. LaFollette said, and turned away to face the Senate. He went on then to review circumstances which he considered as substantiating his position and declared that it was impossible that Mr. Lorimer should not have known what was going on. "We cannot say just where the money came from," he said, "but we know that a large amount of it was used."

Senator Burrows, of Michigan, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, which investigated the Lorimer case and in its report exonerated the accused senator, was on his feet trying to interrupt. He tried to read from the minority report, which declared that the evidence did not prove complicity on Lorimer's part in the alleged bribery.

"Does the senator yield?" asked the presiding officer. The hand of the clock hovered over the half hour mark—people held their breath. The chairman's gavel was in the air.

"Just a minute, just a minute," cried the Wisconsin Senator,

"I know what the senator wants to say. You never can prove a thing like that, but you can know it. I don't know where the money came from that was used to defeat my own re-election to the Senate, but I do know that a part of it came from Wall Street."

Bang! The gavel fell and Senator LaFollette sank back with the phrase "Wall Street" on his lips. A titter of hysterical laughter ran over the galleries.

"The hour of one-thirty having arrived," said the Vice President, "the secretary will report the resolution." It was read:

"Resolved, That William Lorimer was not duly and legally elected to a seat in the Senate of the United States by the Legislature of the State of Illinois."

"The secretary will call the roll."

"Mr. Aldrich," and the vote was on.

Practically all the senators were in their seats and the surplus space in the Senate floor was occupied by members of the House, who remained standing while the vote proceeded.

"BLUE MOUSE" AGAIN.

Great Hue and Cry Over Show in Fayetteville Last Night.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., March 1.—"The Blue Mouse," much talked of lately as an immoral play, is on the boards here tonight, but on probation. The Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist ministers of the city petitioned Mayor Pro Tem. E. A. Poe to prohibit its performance, which he did. The directors of the LaFayette Theatre "got busy" and assured the Mayor that nothing indecent or immoral would be allowed, but the Mayor stood behind his guns, and said the play should not go on. The theatre directors then telegraphed to Mayor J. D. McNeill, who is in Raleigh. Mayor McNeill sent the following telegram to Mayor Poe: "Have just seen telegram from city clerk, chief of police, members of the board of aldermen, and prominent citizens of Wilmington who say the "Blue Mouse" is not objectionable. You are making a mistake and will involve the city in a lawsuit. You have no warrant of law for your action. Attend the show yourself with the chief of police and if anything indecent is shown then you can stop them, not otherwise, and your action is arbitrary. I have instructed the chief of police. You must assume all personal responsibility."

But still Mayor Poe was obdurate. Then the directors distributed circulars giving a full statement of the case and assuring the public that the "Blue Mouse" would be played tonight. About tea time Mayor Poe yielded, consenting that the performance should take place. A committee of three, Mayor Poe, Q. K. Nimocks and S. J. Cooper will act as censors, and if things are not as they should be the play will be stopped.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS.

Wil Assemble in Hampton Roads for Spring Practice.

Washington, March 1.—Eight torpedo boat destroyers of the Atlantic fleet will assemble in Hampton Roads on March 12th, preparatory to their Spring practice. These vessels, which are now at Key West, Fla., are the Paulding, Drayton, Roe, Terry, Flusser, Smith, Lamson and Preston.

Now that the Mardi Gras festival at New Orleans is over the warships which represented the United States navy there, left that port today for other assignment. The armored cruiser Tennessee sailed from New Orleans for New York where she will arrive about March 7th. She will remain in the latter harbor until March 15th when she will join the 5th division of the Atlantic fleet, to which she is attached, and proceed to Hampton Roads for the Spring battle practice. The scoup cruisers Chester and Solem left the Louisiana port today for Pensacola, Fla., for torpedo exercises. On March 10th the two scouts will go to Hampton Roads for Spring practice.

KILL "TOMMY BURNS" BILL.

Favoring Legalized Prize Fighting in Washington State.

Olympia, Washington, March 1.—The Senate today killed the "Tommy Burns" bill to legalize prize fighting. The measure was defeated through the efforts of a woman's lobby after its passage by the Senate had semed assured. It had already passed the House by a scant majority.

Women's Clubs throughout the State then began a vigorous campaign, which resulted in the Senate's adverse vote today—22 to 19.

Tommy Burns, former heavy-weight champion, directed the campaign in favor of the measure.

BAD BLOOD OFTEN INHERITED

Bad blood does not always come as the result of careless living, or indiscretions; it is a condition frequently inherited. Normal, healthy blood contains millions of tiny red corpuscles, which are the vitalizing and nourishing element of the circulation, their office being to provide every portion of the system with its necessary strength and nutriment. In weak, impure blood these corpuscles are lacking in numbers, and therefore the blood is not able to supply the proper amount of nourishment to the body. Bad blood manifests itself in many ways. With some it takes the form of skin diseases and eruptions, others become bilious and malarious, with sallow complexions, torpid liver, etc. Bad blood produces Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula and like troubles. Nothing is equal to S. S. S. as a remedy for bad blood; it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing not only the qualities to cleanse and purify the blood, but composed of roots, herbs and barks that tone up every part of the system, and assist in the creation of blood nutriment. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Blood Poison and all other blood disorders. S. S. S. makes good blood, and good blood makes good health. (Concluded from Page One.)

the control to the senator from Massachusetts." Responded Mr. Money. "There is something rotten in the State of Denmark or dead, is it that the saying goes? Let's be honest and frank about this matter." He then moved to re-commit the bill.

Several senators protested against re-committal. Finally Mr. Lodge said: "I came to the conclusion that in standing aside and giving control of this bill to another it would help along an agreement on the Lorimer case and this measure."

"I feel like a woman trying to pick cork out of a bottle with a hair pin. Getting it little by little," retorted Mr. Money. He said that unless he could get the whole truth as to the log rolling in the secret agreement by which the transfer was made he must insist upon his motion to recommit. The vote was then taken with the result stated.

Mr. Money then moved an amendment to make the commission a Congressional body instead of a permanent commission to be appointed by the President. The amendment was rejected, 23 to 48.

Mr. Bailey sought to have stricken from the bill the section which empowers the commission to inspect the books of the corporations or associations and provided for the submission to Congress of refusals to produce books or papers demanded by the commission.

Senator Bailey disclaimed any intention to filibuster and the ayes and noes on his amendment showed its defeat, 25 to 37.

At 12:30 o'clock this morning (Thursday) Democratic senators opposed fixing a time for a vote on the bill to create a permanent tariff board. They pleaded for an adjournment, most of them saying a filibuster was not contemplated.

At 1:15 o'clock a roll call failed to develop a quorum of the Senate until after the sergeant-at-arms had been instructed to summons the absentees. Senator Stone then pleaded for a recess, saying no progress would be made if it was refused.

The Senate at 1:35 A. M., took a recess until 11 o'clock.

Refused to Adjourn.

At 12:32 o'clock the Senate by a vote of 3 to 44 refused to adjourn. The negative votes were cast entirely by Republicans, who felt bound by the agreement rached yesterday, to enact the tariff board bill if possible. They hope to get an agreement before morning.

MURPHY LETTER EXPOSED.

Reply to Littleton When He Asked Murphy to Keep Hands Off.

New York, March 1.—Representative-elect Martin Littleton, of New York, today made public the answer he received from Charles F. Murphy, in response to his letter to the Tammany leader on the senatorial situation. Mr. Littleton in his letter asked Mr. Murphy to take his hands off the situation at Albany. Mr. Murphy had refused to make the answer public, but had intimated that Mr. Littleton might have the hardihood to assume the responsibility for its publication.

He has, and here it is, as read by Mr. Littleton:

"Hon. Martin W. Littleton.
